Moscow Zoo’s Panda Tumbles in the Snow

February 18, 2021

Andrei Nikerichev / Moskva News Agency

While many Muscovites are tired of the recent 'snowpocalypse' which brought with it a record-breaking snowfall that has not been seen since 1973, Dindin the 3-year-old panda did not seem to mind.

The furry resident of the Moscow Zoo was filmed jumping into snowdrifts and tumbling around with tires.

Don't we all wish we could have a snow day?
