

St. Petersburg Celebrates 'Scarlet Sails' Despite Coronavirus Surge

June 28, 2021

The  Moscow Times

St. Petersburg held its annual "Scarlet Sails" celebration for high school grads, the climax of the White Nights festival, this weekend. Some 39,000 people are reported to have attended the event despite a record-setting surge in new coronavirus cases and deaths in Russia's second-largest city.

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2021/06/28/st-petersburg-celebrates-scarlet-sails-despite-coronavirus-surge-a74361>