Who is Going to Pay? Climate Finance at COP26 with Alexei Kokorin

Eurasian Climate Brief

November 13, 2021

Our guest this time is the head of the climate and energy program at WWF Russia, Alexei Kokorin. Developing countries have hit out at the OECD definition of climate finance, which includes grants, loans, and export finance credits from both private and public sources. We asked Alexei, among other things, what exactly counts as climate finance.
