Snow and Ice Festival Lights Up Moscow Riverside

Sculptors from all over Russia and the world came to carve their winter masterpieces.

January 18, 2022

Enormous creatures and people sculpted from snow and ice have appeared along the Moscow River in Gorky Park as part of the "Snow and Ice" festival. Carved, sanded, packed, shaped, scraped and cut, these figures were made by artists who came to Moscow from all over Russia, Belarus, Italy and Finland.
