In Photos: Ukrainian Shopping Center Lies in Ruins Following Russian Missile Strike

June 29, 2022

A Russian missile struck a shopping center in Kremenchuk, central Ukraine on Monday, killing at least 20 people and injuring dozens more in what Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky has blasted as a "brazen terrorist attack." Russia maintains that the mall hadn't been open during the strike and that its forces were targeting a nearby stockpile of Western-supplied weapons — a version of events that Ukraine denies. Days later, rescuers are still working to recover victims from the rubble:
