Russian 'Eco-Drawing' Competition Highlights Children's Environmental Concerns

December 20, 2023

Russia's state environmental watchdog Rosprirodnadzor opened an exhibition of children's drawings on nature protection in Moscow this week, a part of its larger international youth environmental award "Ecology is Everyone's Business." The governmental body received over 13,000 submissions from every region of Russia as well as several foreign countries to its "Eco-Drawing" contest, which has become an annual event. Here's a look at the winning entries and those of residents from environmentally troubled regions of Russia.
