In Photos: Ukraine's Avdiivka Lays in Ruins After Russian Capture

February 19, 2024

Ukrainian troops have withdrawn from the eastern city of Avdiivka after months of fierce fighting against invading Russian forces. The city, which had a pre-war population of 30,000, is the latest of several Ukrainian cities to have been largely destroyed during Russia's two-year invasion. Here are photos of the city following Russia's capture:
