In Photos: Russians, Foreign Ambassadors Pay Tribute to Nemtsov 10 Years After His Assassination

February 27, 2025

Russians and foreign ambassadors laid flowers, signs and other items in remembrance of Boris Nemtsov, the prominent Kremlin critic who was assassinated on this day 10 years ago. In addition to the site near the Kremlin where Nemtsov was killed — where volunteers have maintained a makeshift memorial nearly every day for years — memorials appeared in cities across Russia. Here's a selection of photos from Thursday's memorials:
