

Ukrainian Drone Strike Kills Woman in Belgorod Region

August 19, 2026

General Staff of the Armed Forces of Ukraine

At least one person was killed and two others were wounded Wednesday afternoon in a series of Ukrainian drone attacks in the western Belgorod region.

A woman died in a district bordering Ukraine's Sumy and Kharkiv regions when a drone struck the vehicle she was traveling in, regional officials said. A male passenger in the same vehicle was hospitalized with injuries.

In a separate attack elsewhere in the region, another woman sustained injuries requiring hospitalization, and several residential homes were damaged.

The Belgorod region, which directly borders northeastern Ukraine, has been subject to near-daily drone and artillery strikes since Russia launched its full-scale invasion in 2022.
